About REFORM

The EU under its Intra-Africa Academic Mobility Scheme, has provided funding to support training of graduate students in African universities.

In this mobility program, six African partner institutions and one EU Technical partner will collaborate in the training of professionals to strengthen fragile ecosystems (FE) management in Africa, which will lead into reduced environmental degradation and sustained food production by small-scale farmers.

Partners include Makerere University (Uganda), Uganda Martyrs University (Uganda), Mzuzu University (Malawi), University of Abomey Calavi (Benin), University Cheikh Anta Diop of Dakar (Senegal), Eduardo Mondlane University (Mozambique) and Swedish University of Agricultural Sciences (Sweden) as a technical partner.

Objectives

The project is expected to contribute to:

- Establishing regional learning platform for improved fragile ecosystem management (FEM);
- Internationalizing and harmonizing of training in FEM,
